Criteria for admission as a Technical Accountant (TA)

Short Description of the Designation:

A Technical Accountant (TA) primarily renders a support function to Professional Accountants by writing up subsidiary books of prime entry. They are involved in the day-to-day practical bookkeeping function including the preparation of working paper files. A Technical Accountant is allowed to prepare financial statements for sole proprietors and partnerships.

Criteria for obtaining the Professional Designation

The following persons are eligible to apply for membership as a Technical Accountant.

A person who has completed two years accounting training under the guidance of a registered accountant with an accounting qualification SAQA rated NQF level 5 (pre 2009) or SAQA rated NQF level 6 (post 2009).

OR

A person who does not have a formal qualification, but has been working as a bookkeeper or accountant for a period of at least 5(five) years can be allowed to be admitted to Technical Accountant status.

(This is the IAC's recognition for prior learning (RPL) process).

The application must be supported by an affidavit, stamped and signed by a Commissioner of Oaths, verifying the applicant's practical experience, as well as a comprehensive job description.

The applicant must be compliant with the Institute's code of conduct

Competency Assessment

Applicants need to do an entrance assessment as stipulated by the Institute.

CPD Requirement

Must complete 20 CPD hours per annum (10 structured + 10 unstructured) comprising of at least 4 categories, viz, Accounting (i.e. IFRS), Taxation, Company Law, Auditing and any other area in which the applicant specialises in.

Included in the 20 CPD hours per annum, a Certified Tax Practitioner will need to complete 15 CPD hours per annum (9 structured tax and 6 unstructured tax CPD's).

Criteria for admission as a Certified Tax Practitioner (CTP)

Short Description of the Designation:

The Certified Tax Practitioner (CTP) is a professional designation that can be awarded to general tax practitioners, accountants and tax attorneys involved in the tax departments of accounting and / or auditing practices, public officers of companies and SARS officials.

In terms of Section 240 of the Tax Administration Act No. 28 of 2011 every natural person who provides advice to another person with respect to the application of a tax; or completes or assists in completing a tax return, such person must register with or fall under the jurisdiction of a Recognized Controlling Body registered with the South African Revenue Services (SARS).

In terms of section 240A of the Tax Administration Laws Amendment Act (No.21 of 2012) SARS will only register members of a Recognised Controlling Body as tax practitioners.

The IAC is a Recognised Controlling Body for Tax Practitioners.

There is no restriction on the tax work which may be under taken by a Certified Tax Practitioner provided that the practitioner is competent to perform such function. To this end the IAC expects that all its members take cognizance of clause 12 of the “Covenant of an IAC Member”.

Criteria for obtaining the Professional Designation

A person who holds an Accounting or Taxation qualification (NQF 6).

Or

Individuals not in possession of a formal qualification but have a minimum of a NQF 4 qualification and have been working within the South African tax environment for at least 5 years can also apply for registration as a Certified Tax practitioner. (This must be viewed in conjunction with SARS criteria).

Plus

There must be a commitment by the applicant that he/she will increase their qualification to NQF5 within 3 years of obtaining membership with the Institute.

This is the IAC’s Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process.

The applicant must be compliant with the Institute’s code of conduct.

All practicing IAC members, who provide a service to the public, are compelled to have professional indemnity insurance.

Academic Component

A person who holds an NQF 6 or higher qualification with at least one of the following subjects can apply for the Certified Tax Practitioner (CTP) status:

- 1) Tax
- 2) Accounting
- 3) Commercial, Company or Corporate Law

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) process

Have a minimum of a NQF 4 qualification with 5 years practical tax experience.

Competency Assessment

Once the academic and practical component has been met, an applicant would need to undergo a 2 hours written and oral evaluation conducted by a registered IAC assessor.

The pass mark for the assessment evaluation is 75%.

Upon signing this application form, applicants acknowledge and agree to the following:

- a. The Board of Directors of the Institute of Accounting and Commerce in its sole discretion may issue the applicant with a practice certificate and membership of the Institute
- b. Membership certificates are and remain the property of the Institute. Should membership be terminated (for whatever reason), the certificates must be returned to the IAC.
- c. Applicants agree to abide by the IAC Constitution (MOI) and By-Laws which incorporates the code of conduct for IAC members.

CONSENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS IN TERMS OF THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT 2013 (POPI)

Introduction

The Protection of Personal Information Act (POPI) aims to give effect to the constitutional right to privacy by balancing the right to privacy against that of access to information. POPI requires that personal information pertaining to individuals be processed lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe on the right to privacy.

This consent form sets out how personal information will be collected, used and protected by IAC, as required by POPI. The use of the words “the individual” for the purposes of this document shall be a reference to any individual communicating with IAC and/or concluding any agreement, registration or application, with the inclusion of each individual referred to or included in terms of such agreement, registration or application.

What is personal information?

The personal information that IAC requires relates to names and surnames, birth dates, identity numbers, passport numbers, demographic information, education information, occupation information, health information, addresses, memberships, personal and work email and contact details.

What is the purpose of the collection, use and disclosure (the processing) of personal information?

IAC is legally obligated to collect, use and disclose personal information for the purposes of:

- reporting to various organizations e.g., SARS, CIPC, SAQA, FASSET, PAFA, QCTO, etc;
- evaluate and process applications;
- compiling statistics and other research reports;
- providing personalized communications;
- complying with the law;

How will IAC process personal information?

IAC will only collect personal information for the purpose as stated above. Information will be collected in the following manner:

- direct from the individual;
- from education institutions, training providers, or other service providers that are providing or provided the individual with services;
- from our own records relating to our previous supply of services or responses to the individual’s request for services;
- from a relevant public or equivalent entity.

To whom will personal information be disclosed?

The personal information may be disclosed to other relevant public or other entities on whose behalf we act as intermediaries, other third parties referred to above in relation to the purpose or who are sources of personal information,

Consent and Permission to process personal information:

- I hereby provide authorization to IAC to process the personal information.
- I understand that withholding of or failure to disclose personal information will result in IAC being unable to perform its functions and/or any services or benefits I may require from IAC.
- I indemnify and hold IAC harmless in respect of any claims by any other person on whose behalf I have consented; against IAC should they claim that I was not so authorized.

- I understand that in terms of POPI and other laws of the country, there are instances where my express consent is not necessary in order to permit the processing of personal information, which may be related to police investigations, litigation or when personal information is publicly available
- I will not hold IAC responsible for any improper or unauthorized use of personal information that is beyond its reasonable control.

Signature of Applicant:

Rights regarding the processing of personal information:

- The individual may withdraw consent to the processing of personal information at any time, and should they wish to do so, must provide IAC with reasonable notice to this effect. Please note that withdrawal of consent is still subject to the terms and conditions of any contract that is in place. Should the withdrawal of consent result in the interference of legal obligations, then such withdrawal will only be effective if IAC agrees to same in writing. IAC specifically draws to the attention that the withdrawal of consent may result in it being unable to provide the requested information and/or services and/or financial or other benefits. Further, please note that the revocation of consent is not retroactive and will not affect disclosures of personal information that have already been made.
- In order to withdraw consent, please contact the Membership Dept. on members@iacsa.co.za
- Where personal information has changed in any respect, the individual is encouraged to notify IAC so that our records may be updated. IAC will largely rely on the individual to ensure that personal information is correct and accurate.
- The individual has the right to access their personal information that IAC may have in its possession and is entitled to request the identity of which third parties have received and/or processed personal information for the purpose. Please note however, that any request in this regard may be declined if:
 - the information comes under legal privilege in the course of litigation,
 - the disclosure of personal information in the form that it is processed may result in the disclosure of confidential information,
 - giving access may cause a third party to refuse to provide similar information to IAC,
 - the information as it is disclosed may result in the disclosure of another person’s information,
 - the information contains an opinion about another person and that person has not consented,
 - the disclosure is prohibited by law.

Requesting access and lodging of complaints:

- Please submit any requests for access to personal information in writing to IAC’s Membership Dept members@iacsa.co.za
- With any request for access to personal information, IAC will require the individual to provide personal information in order to verify identification and therefore the right to access the information.
- There may be a reasonable charge for providing copies of the information requested.
