Criteria for admission as a Financial Accountant in Commerce (FAC)

Short Description of the Designation:

The duty of a Financial Accountant in Commerce (FAC) is to prepare annual financial statements for their employers or clients, and to control, gather, analyze and interpret financial information in such a way that internal and external stakeholders, such as management, investors, banks and shareholders, can use it to forecast the future of the company and to make decisions based on the information.

- A Financial Accountant in Commerce should be allowed to write up books of prime entry for all types of business entities but will not be allowed to act as an Accounting Officer.
- A Financial Accountant in Commerce may apply to be registered as an Accounting Officer but would have to meet the entry requirements prevailing at the time.

To apply for Financial Accountant in Commerce membership the applicant must have the following:

Academic requirement

Have completed an Accounting qualification with a minimum SAQA rated NQF Level 6 (pre 2009) and NQF Level 7 (post 2009),

The qualification must contain the following core subject:

- Financial Accounting 3

Practical / Workplace Experience

The applicant needs to have a minimum of 3 years practical Accounting experience under the guidance of a registered Accountant.

The training must include the writing up of books of prime entry as well as the preparation of financial statements complying with IFRS or IFRS for SME's.

The applicant must be compliant with the Institute's code of conduct

Members of the following Institutes are also eligible for professional membership of the IAC.

- South African Inst. of Professional Accountants (SAIPA)
- South African Inst. of Chartered Accountants (CA) (SA)
- CIMA, CSSA, ACCA

Registered Members in good standing with these mentioned Institutes are welcome to join the IAC and under certain circumstances COULD BE EXEMPTED from the IAC entry evaluation.

Competency Assessment

Once the academic and practical component has been met, an applicant would need to undergo a 3 hour written evaluation followed by a 2 hour oral evaluation, conducted by a registered IAC assessor, covering the following:

- Financial Accounting
- Management Accounting
- Auditing
- Company Law in SA Legislation
- Taxation in SA Legislation
- Practice Management

The pass mark for the assessment evaluation is as follows:

- Accounting 70%
- Taxation 75%
- All other subjects 65%

The applicant will need to travel to the Assessor (at the applicant's own expense) or if agreeable by both parties, the Assessor will travel to the applicant, and an additional travelling charge will be levied.

Once an Evaluator has signed off the above criteria, the Board (in its sole discretion) may issue the applicant with a practice certificate and membership of the Institute.

CPD Requirement:

Must complete 40 CPD hours per annum (20 structured + 20 unstructured) comprising of at least 4 categories, viz, Accounting (i.e. IFRS), Taxation, Company Law, Auditing & Review Engagements, and any other area in which the applicant specializes in.

Upon signing this application form, applicants acknowledge and agree to the following:

- a. The Board of Directors of the Institute of Accounting and Commerce in its sole discretion may issue the applicant with a practice certificate and membership of the Institute
- b. The Annual Membership certificates are and remain the property of the Institute. Should membership be terminated (for whatever reason), the certificate would be regarded as null and void with immediate effect, and must not be displayed in any way by the member, neither should the logo of IAC be used in any letterhead or email signature by the member.
- c. Applicants agree to abide by the IAC Constitution (MOI) and By-Laws which incorporates the code of conduct for IAC members.

Please attach certified copies of the following documents with your application form:

CONSENT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS IN TERMS OF THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT 2013 (POPI)

Introduction

The Protection of Personal Information Act (POPI) aims to give effect to the constitutional right to privacy by balancing the right to privacy against that of access to information. POPI requires that personal information pertaining to individuals be processed lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe on the right to privacy.

This consent form sets out how personal information will be collected, used and protected by IAC, as required by POPI. The use of the words “the individual” for the purposes of this document shall be a reference to any individual communicating with IAC and/or concluding any agreement, registration or application, with the inclusion of each individual referred to or included in terms of such agreement, registration or application.

What is personal information?

The personal information that IAC requires relates to names and surnames, birth dates, identity numbers, passport numbers, demographic information, education information, occupation information, health information, addresses, memberships, personal and work email and contact details.

What is the purpose of the collection, use and disclosure (the processing) of personal information?

IAC is legally obligated to collect, use and disclose personal information for the purposes of:

- reporting to various organizations e.g., SARS, CIPC, SAQA, FASSET, PAFA, QCTO, etc.;
- evaluate and process applications;
- compiling statistics and other research reports;
- providing personalized communications;
- complying with the law;

How will IAC process personal information?

IAC will only collect personal information for the purpose as stated above. Information will be collected in the following manner:

- direct from the individual;
- from education institutions, training providers, or other service providers that are providing or provided the individual with services;
- from our own records relating to our previous supply of services or responses to the individual's request for services;
- from a relevant public or equivalent entity.

To whom will personal information be disclosed?

The personal information may be disclosed to other relevant public or other entities on whose behalf we act as intermediaries, other third parties referred to above in relation to the purpose or who are sources of personal information,

Consent and Permission to process personal information:

- I hereby provide authorization to IAC to process the personal information.
- I understand that withholding of or failure to disclose personal information will result in IAC being unable to perform its functions and/or any services or benefits I may require from IAC.
- I indemnify and hold IAC harmless in respect of any claims by any other person on whose behalf I have consented; against IAC should they claim that I was not so authorized.
- I understand that in terms of POPI and other laws of the country, there are instances where my express consent is not necessary in order to permit the processing of personal information, which may be related to police investigations, litigation or when personal information is publicly available
- I will not hold IAC responsible for any improper or unauthorized use of personal information that is beyond its reasonable control.

Signature of Applicant:

Rights regarding the processing of personal information:

- The individual may withdraw consent to the processing of personal information at any time, and should they wish to do so, must provide IAC with reasonable notice to this effect. Please note that withdrawal of consent is still subject to the terms and conditions of any contract that is in place. Should the withdrawal of consent result in the interference of legal obligations, then such withdrawal will only be effective if IAC agrees to same in writing. IAC specifically draws to the attention that the withdrawal of consent may result in it being unable to provide the requested information and/or services and/or financial or other benefits. Further, please note that the revocation of consent is not retroactive and will not affect disclosures of personal information that have already been made.
- In order to withdraw consent, please contact the Membership Dept. on members@iacsa.co.za
- Where personal information has changed in any respect, the individual is encouraged to notify IAC so that our records may be updated. IAC will largely rely on the individual to ensure that personal information is correct and accurate.
- The individual has the right to access their personal information that IAC may have in its possession and is entitled to request the identity of which third parties have received and/or processed personal information for the purpose. Please note however, that any request in this regard may be declined if:
 - the information comes under legal privilege in the course of litigation,
 - the disclosure of personal information in the form that it is processed may result in the disclosure of confidential information,
 - giving access may cause a third party to refuse to provide similar information to IAC,
 - the information as it is disclosed may result in the disclosure of another person's information,
 - the information contains an opinion about another person and that person has not consented,
 - the disclosure is prohibited by law.

Requesting access and lodging of complaints:

- Please submit any requests for access to personal information in writing to IAC's Membership Dept members@iacsa.co.za
- With any request for access to personal information, IAC will require the individual to provide personal information in order to verify identification and therefore the right to access the information.
- There may be a reasonable charge for providing copies of the information requested.
